

---

Sheffield Safety & Loss Control, LLC

Construction Safety & Health, Loss Control, and Risk Management

---

Paul J. Wojcieszak CSP, CHST

wojcieszak@sheffieldsafety.com

President

Cell: (773) 617-4230

Areas of Expertise

- Loss Control Program Development
- Large Loss Accident Investigations
- Heavy/Highway Construction
- Owner Controlled Insurance Programs
- Work Zone Safety
- Training Program Development
- OSHA Standards & Policies
- General Construction Management

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

December 2003 to Present - Sheffield Safety and Loss Control, LLC.

President & Co-Founder responsible to provide administration and Safety Services/Loss Control consultation to construction companies, insurance brokers, insurance carriers, and project owners.

July 2000 to December 2003 – Compliance Safety Advocates, Inc.

General Manager responsible for coordinating the field operations throughout the company and act as a liaison between field staff and client management. Responsible for initiating, facilitating and coordinating all of Compliance Safety Advocates, Inc. activities and functions to provide services to their clients. In addition, responsible for new business development and expanding service base with existing clients.

April 1999 to July 2000 – Walsh Construction Company of Illinois

Safety Manager for Heavy Highway Division responsible for managing general liability along with Workers Compensation claims for the division. Develop and conduct specialized training for supervisors and hourly employees. Implement a division wide Job Hazard Analysis program. Implement and maintain all necessary DOT procedures for 2000 Trucking, Inc. Establish Heavy Highway Division wide goals and objectives for project management. Implement aggressive training program for foremen, superintendents, and project managers. Provide monthly division reports to Vice President of Heavy Highway.

July 1997 to April 1999 – Walsh Construction Company of Illinois

Safety Engineer responsible for overseeing the safety for over $200 million of ongoing construction projects. Develop job site-specific programs, conduct weekly safety inspections, and purchase all safety equipment. Report directly to Corporate Safety Director.

May 1997 to July 1997 – Waste Management Inc. – Chicago Sorting Center

Safety Officer responsible for 97 hourly and 10 salary employees. Assisted in maintaining the facility/plant safety program at 34th street sorting Center. Responsibilities included conducting training in fall protection, aerial devices, lockout/tagout, confined spaces, and Division orientation. Performed audits and inspections at various locations including maintenance facilities, heavy equipment operations, and general facilities on a daily basis, assisted in pre-qualification of contract employees, maintained a database for training, auditing, injury and illness information, and performed accident investigations.

EDUCATION AND ACCREDITATION

B.S., Occupational Health and Safety ABET Accredited
Illinois State University

Board of Certified Safety Professionals (#16455)
Construction Health and Safety Technician (#C311)

CONTINUING EDUCATION

OSHA 500 Trainer Course in Safety & Health Standards for Construction Industry
OSHA 502 Update for Trainers in the Construction Industry
OSHA Steel Erection Seminar
ARTBA / National Safety Council Work Zone Safety Conference
HAZWOPER 40-hour Site Worker
HAZWOPER 8-hour Supervisor
Respirator Fit Test Certified

PRESENTATIONS

Illinois Department of Transportation / AGC of Illinois – WORK ZONE SAFETY AWARENESS SEMINARS – presented to over 2100 IDOT resident engineers and IDOT qualified contractors. January – March 2002

AMEC Construction Management – PRINCIPLES OF ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION – presented to corporate executives and regional safety managers. September 2002

Illinois State University - PRINCIPLES OF ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION, 2001-2003
- FUNDAMENTALS OF FALL PROTECTION, 2000
- EXCAVATION HAZARD AWARENESS, 2000
- WORK ZONE SAFETY, 2000 - 2002

AFFILIATIONS

- Illinois State University Alumni Association – Occupational Safety Department Representative
  - Illinois Road and Transportation Builders
  - American Society of Safety Engineers (#265016)
  - National Safety Council
-